

1900-058 Chancery Causes: Wiley Witt vs. Sallie Witt
Lee Co.

Bush, Adams, Morris, Caper, Duncan, Flanary, Flanery

CA-Divorce

T-Health/Medicine
Vices

To the Hon. W. T. Miller Judge of the circuit court of Lee county Virginia.

Humblly complaining, Your orator ^{a citizen of this State for more than 12 months} Wiley Pitt, would show unto your honor that on the - day of - 1890, your orator was married to Sallie Pitt, ^{in this State} nee Sallie Bush, that within two months after we were married she acted so curious at times that my suspicions were aroused that her mind was not right and within four months, that she was insane at times became the talk of the neighborhood.
She grew worse, and worse untill December 1893 when she became violent & would try to destroy herself & others in different ways, in Jan'y 1894 she was tried for insanity by Justice Clinger & others & found guilty, but for some cause she was not sent to the asylum &

1. X That your orator further alleges that at the time of & before he was intermarried with her - she was insane - & therefore incapable of entering into or contracting the marriage state: & that our orator of said insanity - she did not regard it keep sacred her marriage vows & obligations.

her father gave her and taken her to his home and she has remained with her father since & up to this time. Your orator avers that during all the time we live together from the day of our marriage up to the time she was tried for insanity that he was kind & indulgent and in all respects treated her as a husband should treat his wife, your orator further averts will show to your honor that before we were married, ^{and at the time thereof} that her mind was that of a crazy woman at times, all of which was nicely kept from the knowledge of your orator. X Your orator admits that for the last six months or more defendant mind appears to be sound and that she talks as sensible as any person & further your orator alleges that the defendant has been guilty of the act of adultery since she was adjudged insane at the house of William Henry Morris in Harlan County Ky. with James Adams & others. And further

x And that a proper Guardian Ad. litem be appointed & required to answer for said Defendant, when your Orator alleged to be insane.

declares that she will never live with your orator again or any other man, Now your orator avers that the aforesaid events have separated plaintiff & def^t for a period of more than three years, that your orator is unable to say whether or not he never will continue as it is now but if it should I could never under any circumstance live with her again. for to think of her uncertain state of mind I could not rest by day or sleep at night, your orator avers that no children were born to us & Now the prayer of your orator is that ^{said marriage be deemed void} your Honor grant him a divorce a vinculo Matrimonii dissolving the bonds of matrimony & the existing between plaintiff & def^t & he will ever pray &c
